Nestled in a peaceful East Hemet setting with mountain and open grassy space views, this charming single-story mid-century home offers privacy on an expansive lot, over 1/4 acre. This home features 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, blending timeless character with thoughtful updates throughout. The upgraded kitchen features tile countertops and backsplash, a five-burner stove, a dishwasher, a convenient butler's pantry, and plenty of storage cabinetry. The spacious living and dining area showcases a beam ceiling and French doors that open to the backyard, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor living experience. Updated windows fill the home with natural light, while wood-look tile flooring, a mini-split heating and air conditioning system, and an indoor laundry room add comfort and convenience. Outside, you'll find plenty of space to enjoy the serene surroundings, with mature trees shading the backyard, potential RV parking, two Tuff Sheds for storage, hobbies, or a home office—one equipped with electricity. This unique property offers the perfect combination of peaceful country living and modern amenities, while remaining just minutes from shopping, dining, and everyday conveniences.
