Property Description

Honey, stop the car. Location, Location and Location. We must see this home at the end of this quiet cul-de-sac. I am looking at the pictures on my phone. I like the low maintenance curb appeal. Wait, all the pics have finally loaded. As you enter the wide double door, there is a huge living room for me to sit and read. A formal dining room is off the kitchen. The kitchen has brand new quartz countertops. A family room is there for you to relax, watch TV while enjoying the fireplace. There is a huge master bedroom; the master bathroom has a new vanity with a quartz countertop and his and her sinks. Listen to this, the other 3 bedrooms are on the other side of the house so we can enjoy a lot of privacy inside our home. Can you believe this? We can fit a Cal King Size bed in our Master Bedroom and all the other bedrooms are not small. Sweetheart, you can create an outdoor oasis with this gorgeous mountain view. We can sit outside to enjoy the sunrise and sunset. It really has everything we wanted; you've got to see the pool and jacuzzi, RV parking, a garden and a separate gated area in case we want to adopt a few loving furry additions. There is a tangerine tree, pomegranate and avocado tree. In addition, there are gorgeous Italian Cypress trees that give shade and privacy to entertain family, friends, and guests. One last thing, you don't need to buy any tools, we can just move in this turnkey home to start writing our new chapter and build happy memories. I don't want to miss this opportunity to be the next owner of this home.
